What is the Ten Qirat?

The Ten Qirat refers to the ten recognized methods of reciting the Quran, each with its unique set of pronunciation, articulation, and recitation rules. These Qirat have been passed down through reliable chains of narrators, preserving the authenticity of the Quranic text across centuries.

Here are the ten well-known Qirat:

- Nafi' al-Madani
- Ibn Kathir al-Makki
- Abu 'Amr al-Basri
- Ibn 'Amir ash-Shami
- Asim al-Kufi
- Hamzah al-Kufi
- Al-Kisai al-Kufi
- Abu Ja'far al-Madani
- Ya'qub al-Hadrami
- Khalaf al-Bazzar

Each recitation style offers its unique melody, pronunciation differences, and linguistic beauty, allowing learners to appreciate the diversity within the unity of the Quran. Through Riwaq Al-Quran, students can explore these styles with expert guidance, ensuring a solid foundation in each method.
