

About Laura Sosner Photography

LAURA SOSNER | PHOTOGRAPHY INC.

Beyond the frame, what sets Laura Sosner Photography apart is the immersive experience. It's not just about the end product but the journey from conception to the final piece. Laura believes in involving her clients in the artistic process, ensuring they feel seen and heard, and allowing them to be co-creators in storytelling.

The rich tapestry of Vancouver, from its bustling streets to its serene corners, serves as Laura's canvas. Yet, her intrinsic ability to juxtapose these scenes with human emotions elevates her work to art. Whether it's the profound depth in a bride's eyes, the pure joy emanating from a child's laughter, or the quiet resilience of nature against urbanization, Laura's lens captures it all with breathtaking depth and clarity.

Her dedication to constant learning and evolution ensures that Laura Sosner Photography remains at the forefront of the Vancouver photography scene. While many are content to rest on their laurels, Laura continually challenges herself, experimenting with new techniques, exploring uncharted territories, and pushing the boundaries of what's possible with a camera.

Collaborating with Laura is a celebration. A celebration of moments, emotions, and intricacies that make life beautiful. Her clientele list grows continuously, with many returning, drawn to her undeniable skill, warm persona, and visionary approach.

In an age where everyone with a smartphone considers themselves a photographer, Laura Shortt is a testament to what true photography—imbued with passion, skill, and soul—should be. Her legacy in the Vancouver photography scene is not just of breathtaking images but of stories told with heart and finesse.

