

Empowering Voices

Writer's workshop

at Heritage University

PREPARE YOUR BEST DURING
EDITING WEEK AT THE WRITING STUDIO!

The Composition Program and Academic Skills Center are pleased to host "Editing Week" at the Writing Studio. You have worked hard on your final papers and projects. You have researched material, organized your thoughts, and worked with others to revise your projects in thoughtful ways. Whether you are finishing a paper or a multimodal project, all that is left to do is proofreading and editing!

KICK-OFF EVENT!

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 29 | 2:30p - 3:30p

"Self-Editing Introductory Workshop" with Dr. Sol Neely

Bring your project and learn techniques for developing habits of quality self-editing. You will learn to put the "polishing touches" on your projects before turning them in!

NOVEMBER 29 – DECEMBER 3

Editing Week @ the Writing Studio

Work with our writing tutors and faculty to develop important self-editing skills that help you deliver your best composition project possible. Make an appointment or drop by the Writing Studio in person or by Zoom. Students are also invited to collaborate on peer review and self-editing!

FOR MORE INFORMATION

DIRECTOR OF COMPOSITION

Dr. Sol Neely
Neely_S@Heritage.edu

ACADEMIC SKILLS CENTER

(509) 865-8517
ASC@Heritage.edu